@curiocasa

We want to make luxury art and décor accessible to everyone, bringing in a collection that has something to match everyones' taste and preference. We intend to build our community of artists and bring in works of genius artists' from varying cultures and art mediums.

Curio Casa literally translates to intriguing objects, and since inception the brand has aimed to bring to forefront décor pieces that are extraordinary. Housing a vast collection of spectacular pieces that have been carefully curated from across the globe, Curio Casa has managed to create a community of world class artists and of individuals with impeccable taste and design sensibilities.

Collections

Artefacts:

We house a unique range of artefacts, something for the contemporary, something for the quirky and something for the maximalist.

Planters:

Our planters are a collection that marries contemporary design with nature inspired textures, bringing them directly from Bali to your home.

Outdoor Furniture:

Our outdoor furniture is not just sleek, modern and irresistibly design forward, it's also extremely functional and comfortable
